

Partnering to Keep Kids Safe In and Around Open Water

Use our resources

- Research Report
- Open Water Safety Checklist
- Infographic
- Water Watcher Cards for Parents in English and Spanish

Post on Facebook

- Roughly 1,000 children drowned in a single year in the U.S., most of them between May and August. @SafeKidsWorldwide and @Nationwide #MakeSafeHappen are teaming up to give you tips and tools to keep kids in your community safe. Bit.ly/openwaterdrowning
- When it comes to drowning in lakes, rivers, oceans and the like, boys are at much higher risk than girls: 8 in 10 open water drowning victims are males. Read about this and other alarming findings in the new report from @SafeKidsWorldwide . Bit.ly/SKWreport

Share on Twitter

- We're joining with @SafeKids and @Nationwide #MakeSafeHappen to spread the word about #watersafety and #drowning prevention. Learn more: Bit.ly/openwaterdrowning.
- How can you keep your family safe this summer? Understand the differences between swimming in pools and open water. And get tips on swimming safety from @SafeKids. Bit.ly/openwaterdrowning