Baby Trend Sit N' Stand Strollers Death Reported

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) and Baby Trend are warning consumer about Baby Trend's Sit N'Stand Double and Ultra strollers with model numbers beginning with "SS76" or "SS66". These strollers place young children at risk of head or neck entrapment between the pivoting front canopy and the arm rest or seat back of the strollers. With Baby Trend receiving one report of neck entrapment resulting in the asphyxiation death of a 14-month-old and a second non-fatal incident, consumers should be aware of the danger and mitigate the hazard by removing and separately storing the canopy when not in use and fully securing children with the built-in five point harness.

TOP RECALLS

A few more reminders:

- Register all new car seats and booster seats. <http://www-odi.nhtsa.dot.gov/recalls/register/childseat/>
- Be careful about using hand-me-downs or buying children's products at a secondhand shop or yard sale.
- It violates federal law to sell recalled products. If you know of an unsafe product, you can report it to the CPSC. <https://www.saferproducts.gov/CPSRMSPublic/Incidents/ReportIncident.aspx>
